OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT

New Delhi, the 1st December 1951

No. 59-Pres./51.—The President is pleased to approve the award of the MAHA VIR CHAKRA to the under-mentioned officer for acts of gallantry in the operations in Jammu and Kashmir:—

Wing Commander HRUSHIKESH MOOLGAVKAR (1644) I.A.F.

As the Local Commander in Kashmir of the Air Force during operations, Wing Commander Hrushikesh Moolgavkar did outstanding service on the Ground and in the Air. He personally led and directed bombing attacks on the well-defended Skardu, Uri, Zozila Pass, and Saadabad Sectors. The Uri Sector, in particular, presented severe restrictions upon all operational flying in that area. Wing Commander Hrushikesh Moolgavkar evolved a plan of attacking Uri guns and carried this attack out in a Tempest aircraft, exposing himself not only to the fire of Anti-Aircraft guns, but also coming dangerously near the "Compressibility Zone" due to heavy load of bombs at a high altitude.

Wing Commander Hrushikesh Moolgavkar gave effective support to the Army during operations in Kashmir, displaying a high sense of duty, co-ordination and planning. This Officer by his offensive spirit and leadership inspired his Squadron Commanders and Pilots with great confidence.

No. 60-Pres./51.—The President has been pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the under-mentioned officers of the Bombay Police:—

Names of the officers and ranks.—Tukaram Laxman Laboli, Police Havaldar, B. No. 798/C and Pandurang Gopal Shiwalkar, Police Constable B.No. 4901/C, both of Greater Bombay Police Force.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.—At about 10-15 P.M. on 4th May 1950, Police Havaldar Tukaram Laxman Laboli and Police Constable Pandurang Gopal Shiwalkar while on patrol duty near Chowpatty sea-shore, noticed a person loitering about in a suspicious manner. On being interrogated the suspect suddenly whipped out a Service Revolver and fired at the Policemen at point blank range and then tried to escape. Undaunted, the Policemen pursued him at great personal risk. The culprit fired a few more shots while he was being chased. He was eventually brought to bay in a compound overlooking Chowpatty. When he found that he had no means of escape, he turned the revolver on himself and suffered a serious injury in the chest. He was immediately arrested and removed to the hospital, where he recovered from the injury.

During the course of enquiries it was revealed that the revolver had been stolen along with a gold ring from the residence of one Shri Santokhsingh Gurudattasing residing at Jacob Circle, Bombay. It was also revealed that at about 4-30 A.M. on the 3rd May 1950, the accused Jogandarsing Harnamsing had climbed up a drain pipe into a flat and attempted to outrage the modesty of a woman who was asleep there. When she and her sister raised an alarm, the accused fired a shot from the same revolver and injured her in the abdomen. As he was running away, members of the public chased him but he fired two shots at the pursuers and managed to escape. The woman has since identified Jogandarsing Harnamsing as the person who had shot at her.

Police Havaldar Tukaram Laxman Laboli and Police Constable Pandurang Gopal Shiwalkar showed courage and disregard for their own safety while apprehending the accused.

2. These awards are made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carry with them the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 3.

New Delhi, the 4th December 1951

No. 61-Pres./51.—The President has been pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the under-mentioned officer of the Uttar Pradesh Police:—

Name of the officer and rank.—Gyan Singh, Constable No. 193, Civil Police, Aligarh District, Uttar Pradesh.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.—On the night of the 13th January 1950,

Constable Gyan Singh, while on patrol duty along with two other Constables and one Head Constable of Aligarh Gate Outpost, saw three suspicious looking persons wearing overcoats of the Police pattern and tried to round them up. Two of the suspects managed to escape, while the third whipped out a country made 12 bore gun and aimed it at his pursuers, whereupon Constable Gyan Singh, in utter disregard of his safety, fell upon him. The man fired at close range and the shot hit the Constable in the right arm, where the entire charge got lodged. In spite of this severe injury the latter continued to grapple with his assailant and did not loosen his grip on him until other members of the Police party came up and secured him. He was found to be one Bunda, a desperate bad character of Aligarh who was being prosecuted in several criminal cases and was on bail. On his being searched 12 live cartridges were recovered and he was prosecuted under section 307, I.P.C. and section 19 of the Indian Arms Act.

Constable Gyan Singh showed extraordinary courage and determination of a high order in this encounter.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.
